Mr. Louis Schwartz
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Schwartz:

In response to your inquiry concerning [redacted]
I enclose herewith biographical data and a statement by [redacted] which I believe quite thoroughly covers his [redacted] as well as his [redacted] Perhaps more important than this data is my personal assessment of [redacted] I have not been a close personal acquaintance of [redacted] but over several years have heard of his work both directly and indirectly. He apparently did an excellent job

[redacted]
the latter capacity he has shown considerable ability as an executive and in persuading others to support the work of the [redacted] [redacted]

Inasmuch as my organization is quite familiar with the work of the [redacted] virtue of identity of interests, I believe it would be remiss on my part not to note [redacted] very valuable contribution in the position he now holds. We consider that the [redacted] is doing a truly outstanding job in the struggle for the [redacted] I believe that this should be taken into consideration if there is any thought of enticing him away from that position to accept one in the Government.

Sincerely yours,

(signed) Lyman B. Kirkpatrick
